> MR. DOBBIN'S SPEECH .- We see it stated in some of the papers, that Mr McRae of North Carolina, in giving the vote of that State, delivered a speech in behalf of Gen. Pierce. This is an error. It was the Hon. J. C. Dobbin of Fayetteville, who announced the vote of N. Carolina, and at the same time spoke in favor of Gen. Pierce's nomination. This speech of Mr. Dobbin's was decidedly the best speech made in the Convention. It was made at a critical moment. it was exactly to the purpose, it was eloquent there or not, I do not know. Please send me another supply imand stirring. In our opinion, it contributed more mediately. to the nomination of Gen. Pierce, than all other cause ses combined. Wilmington Bank Rates of Exchange. Saltimore 1 per cent. | Philadelphia 1 per cent New York1 REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING JUNE 17, 1852.

NAVAL STORES .- The receipts of Turpentine have reached 5,312 barrels since last Thursday, and prices have improved 5 a 10 cents per bbl. Sales have been effected for all put upon the market as follows: Yellow dip 2 70 a $2 75; virgin 3 15 a $3 20; hard 1 25 a $1 35,-closing at highest figures. The sales of the week foot up about 5,312 bbls.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE-Has been steady at 33c., with sales of some 900 barrels at this price. The stock is light, and holders are firm at this price. Rosin.-The only transactions we hear of have been confined to the common article, -say some 1,525 barrels at 90, 95, and 100 cents per bbl., as in size. TAR .- A few small lots have been brought in and sold at $1 80 per bbl. The article is very scarce and in demand. LIME .- 200 casks have changed hands at $1 15 per bbl. BACON.-This article is in rather better supply, and we note sales of 20 a 25,000 lbs. at 13 cts. per lb., hog round. Hams, separate, at 14 cents. No change in Western Bacon. LARD .- Sales of North Carolina Lard at 121 cents in bbls. and 13 cents per lb. in kegs. Sales of Western Lard at 114 cents in bbls., and 12 cents per lb. in kegs.

CORN.-Receipts have been light, but the stock in the hands of dealers is fully fair. Last sales we note was made at 63 cents per bushel. TIMBER .- The receipts of Timber continue light. We

Liquons .- Sales of 229 bbls. New Orleans Whiskey at 21 ents per gallon. SHINGLES .- Small sales of common cypress Shingles at $2

Pong. - The stock is fair and we continue last week's quotations as in quantity. See tabl .. RICE .- Sales per single tierce at $4. In lots at $3 75 per 100 lbs.

STAVES & HEADING .- Small lots White Oak bbl. Staves at $10 per M. for inferior. Sales Ash Heading at $10 per M. BEEF CATTLE .- The stock in Butcher's hands is only limited. Prices range from 5 to 51 cents for nett beef on the hoof with but little arriving. FREIGHTS-Are without change-but few vessels in port, and freights not very abundant. In other articles there is little or nothing to report, and we refer to our table for a statement of prices. Business has been remarkable dull during the past week.

NEW ORLEANS, June 15 .- Cotton to day, Tuesday, was quiet, and barely 500 bales changed hands, in consequence of Factors holding off until they receive the advices now nearly due at New York by the British Mail steam ship Europa, which left Liverpoul on the 5th inst. Corn was active, and 40,000 bushels were sold at from 48 to 50 cents. CHARLESTON, June 16 .- Cotton .- The market may be said to have been brought to a stand yesterday, so little was done in the trticle The sales were limited to 180 bales, at 71 and 94. Prices are nominal.

NEWBERN, N. C., June 16.—Turpentine.—The water courses are very low, and the arrivals have for some time past been very light. Old dip remains steady at $2 80; scrape 1 75 to $1 80. We hear of sales of small lots of virgin dip at $3. Turpentine is in demand at these prices.

Corn —No receipts since our last; retail price in the stores at 60c. per bushel. Meal.—Small receipts owing to the drought; retails at 90 to 100 cents per bushel. Bacon.—A sale of Hams on Saturday at 11c.; Sides and Shoulders 10 ic. No receipts of Lard since our last.

NEW YORK, June 15 -The New York Cotton market SCOTT & BALDWIN'S. Go there if you want Garments well made and well cut, and at prices us low as the same quuality of goods are sold in New York.
